

Leadership

Welcome to Leadership Monday! As part of the Hampshire School Games Week, we have selected a couple of different activities to help your pupils understand the skills required and roles of a leader.

We selected these activities for the first day of Hampshire School Games Week so you could find your best leaders and then utilise their skills throughout the week.

Activity 1

What is a leader?

- Divide the class into groups of 4 to 6.
- Discuss and come up with a definition for 'what is leader?'
- Next list what skills make a good leader (e.g – good communicator).
- Write these down on a whiteboard or piece of paper.
- Share your ideas with the other groups.
- You could ask the pupils to list who they think are good leaders and what qualities they have, you could find pictures and make a collage etc.

Activity 2

The Leadership Pizza

- This activity will help to improve pupil's understanding of different leadership skills. Each pupil should create their own 'Leadership Pizza' choosing toppings or skills that makes a good leader, make sure the pupils think about which of the skills may suit them best. Once everyone has made their own Pizza, give everyone the opportunity to discuss why they have chosen their toppings with the person next to them or as a whole class. Use the list of words below to help, it may be the teacher needs to guide the pupils and help with the meaning of some words.
- After discussion as a class or in pairs, each pupil should revisit their pizza and either stick with what they have chosen or change their toppings if they think a different skill is more important following the group discussion. Remember, not all Pizzas will be the same as every person has different mannerisms and traits, which makes them who they are & reflects how they approach leadership.
- Each pupil should keep their Pizza in a safe place. At the end of the week, review and reflect on the toppings chosen and whether they are still the 6 most relevant skills. It may be that you find throughout the week, with a bit of practice, a certain skill has now become a strength!

Here are some examples of skills some leaders have – you may relate with some of these or you may come up with some ideas of your own.

Passion – Vision – Belief – Empathy – Valuing Others – Good Listener – Solution Seeker – Aware – Integrity – Kind – Responsible – Understanding – Team Player – Prepared – Cooperative – Fun – Creative – Confident – Open to Advice – Flexible – Adaptable – Calm – Inclusive – Good Communicator – Reliable – Patient - Risk Taker – Good at Feedback – Decisive – Problem Solver – Mentor

Activity 3 Create a physically Active Games

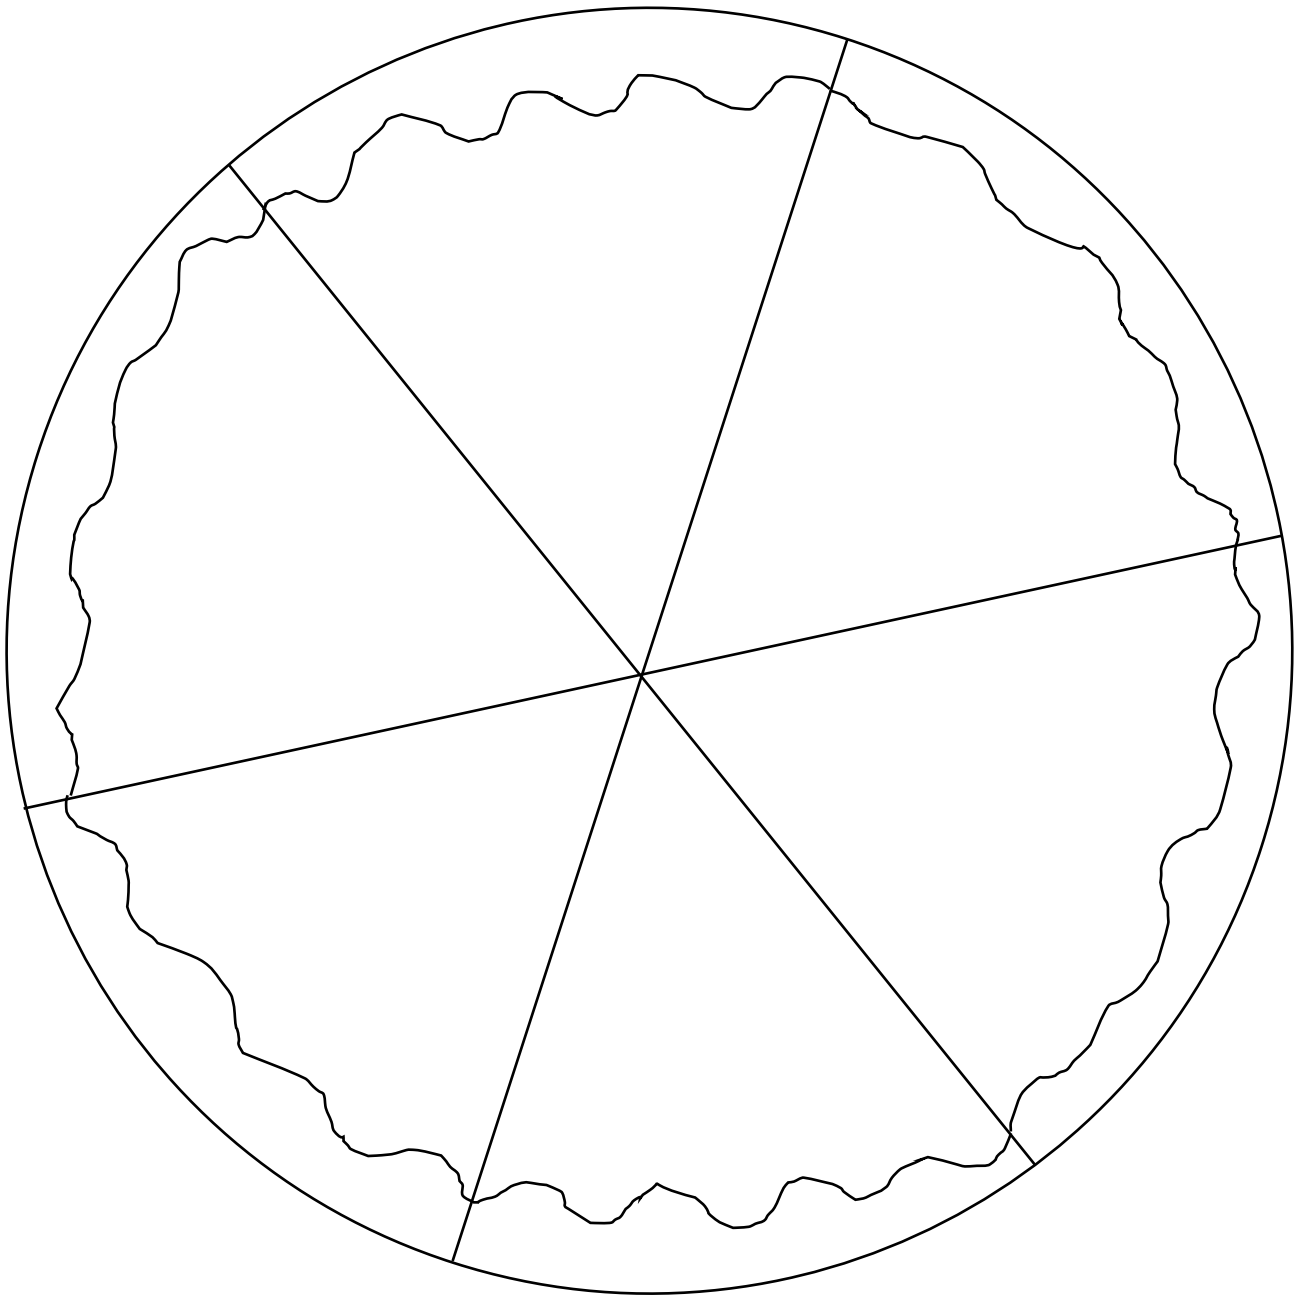

Ask the children to create a new physically active game, in pairs or small groups.

There is a template at attached which they can use to formulate their ideas. Once they have 'invented' their new game, each group will lead the rest of their class through their activity.

A chance for using some great leadership skills.

Leadership Pizza

Write one leadership skill in each slice of the pizza. Use clear, bold words, and decorate your pizza, just how you like it.

The most important skill is _____

Because _____
